THE SPELLING CONTEST

The committee in charge of the spelling contest at Rainier last Friday evening regrets that it was necessary to conform to a set of strict rules in conducting the same. In a few cases, pupils were counted out upon a very slight infringement of the rules. It is very unfortunate if those pupils feel aggrieved over the matter.

J. B. Wilkerson,
Chairman of the Committee.

A Colorado woman has just recently received a divorce decree from a husband who died several years ago. We presume no defense was put up.
